HYDE COUNTY MANAGER, BILL RICH, APPOINTED TO UNC SCHOOL OF GOVERNMENT FOUNDATION BOARD

On May 19, 2017, Dean Mike Smith welcomed four new members to the board of directors for the School of Government Foundation Board of Directors. One of the newly appointed members is Hyde County Manager, Bill Rich.

The School of Government Foundation was established in 1996 to help strengthen financial support for faculty teaching and research, statewide education programs, student scholarships, staff development, and general operating needs. A Board of Directors representing the School's diverse state and local government clients, the Master of Public Administration program, and major supporters oversees the operation of the Foundation.

As the largest university-based local government training, advisory, and research organization in the United States, the School of Government offers up to 200 courses, webinars, and specialized conferences for more than 12,000 public officials each year. Hyde County employees have utilized these training opportunities on multiple occasions to better serve their citizens. Mr. Rich is excited to serve on the Foundation's Board of Directors to continue affording these opportunities to others.

Established in 1931 as the Institute of Government, the UNC School of Government provides educational, advisory, and research services for state and local governments. Visit sog.unc.edu or call 919.966.5381 for more information on the School's courses, publications, programs, and services.
